If your parent has been denied a PLUS Loan, you may be eligible to borrow additional funds from the Unsubsidized Direct Loan program, provided your parents will not be pursuing additional PLUS eligibility (either by reapplying with an eligible cosigner, or by correcting or challenging the credit history on which the determination was based).

The amount of additional loan eligibility is based on your cost of attendance, class level limits (not to exceed $4,000 for freshmen and sophomores, and $5,000 for juniors and seniors), and other awarded financial aid and resources. It will not always be the same amount as the PLUS Loan that has been denied.
